

Alex Haddad

Alex was a member of the Black and White Juniors, which evolved into the Rockford Eagles Senior Corps. He also founded and instructed the Phantomettes, one of the dominant units in the Midwest Color Guard Circuit for many years. The Phantomettes were the nucleus for the Phantom Regiment Drum and Bugle Corps of which Alex was the founder and first Director. Alex held several National Offices in the All-American Judges Association. He was a Midwest Color Guard Circuit Board Member and helped run and instruct the M.W.C.G.C. School for many years. He served on the CSJA Board and was a Caption Chairman many times. He helped write the original Central States exams in Brass and Marching.